

The User (Browser) interacts with the Frontend (Next.js), which fetches content from Sanity CMS for structured data and Third-party APIs for external services like shipment tracking. The Frontend dynamically combines this data to render and display interactive web pages on the User Interface.